Workshop: Research Agendas for Legal Protection of Soil in the EU

The Lisbon Public Law Research Centre invites Junior and early-career scholars (Ph.D. students, Post-Doctoral Researchers, Research Fellows and Assistant Professors) from law and social sciences fields to submit abstracts for presentations exploring research agendas at the intersection of law and soil protection in the EU. The workshop will be held in Lisbon on June 9th, 2025, at the University of Lisbon School of Law.

Conference Themes and Suggested Topics

We welcome submissions addressing research questions related to the following topics in EU law:

1. Soil protection and climate action, including climate change mitigation and adaptation.
2. Land-use planning and soil health.
3. Soil ecological integrity and soil security.
4. Food security and soil health and sustainable management.
5. Energy transition, indirect land-use-change, soil biodiversity, and groundwater protection.

Submitted abstracts must include a brief outline of the research topic, one or more research questions related to the same research topic, and a conclusion with the main findings of the research and suggestions for further research on the topic.

Submission Guidelines

- Abstracts should be no more than 300 words and include the title, author(s), affiliation(s), short bio (max 100 words) and contact details.
- Please submit abstracts by 30 April 2025 to environmental-law@lisbonpubliclaw.pt.

Authors will be notified of acceptance by 7 May 2025.

Selected papers will be considered for publication in a special issue or an edited volume.

Travel expenses may be accommodated, subject to budget availability.

For more information, please contact environmental-law@lisbonpubliclaw.pt.
