

DATE: 21 OCTOBER | ROOM: 12.27 - FDUL | FORMAT: HYBRID

EUROPEAN PROCUREMENT LAW GROUP MEETING

Enforcement of EU Public Procurement Law Book Project Meeting

08h30 | Welcome

09h00 | The book project: scope, purpose, update

Book editors

- François Lichère
- Carina Risvig Hamer (online)
- Piotr Bogdanowicz
- Miguel Assis Raimundo

09h30 | Panel 1

Enforcement of Public Procurement Rules in General

General overview of the national systems concerning enforcement of EU public procurement law: which bodies are competent, which role for the courts, supreme audit institutions, competition authorities, etc.

- François Lichère
- Highlights from the Country Reports
- Discussion | all

10h15 | Coffee Break

10h30 | Panel 2

Access to complaints/review in public procurement

Who can file a complaint, and where; time limits; which claims available; which contents/grounds can be argued in the complaint?

- Miguel Assis Raimundo
- Highlights from the Country Reports
- Discussion | all

11h30 | Panel 3

Standstill, automatic suspension and interim measures

How do the standstill period and automatic suspension work; do the rules apply to below thresholds contracts and outside the Directives; which conditions for granting interim measures?

- Piotr Bogdanowicz
- Highlights from the Country Reports
- Discussion | all

12h30 | Light Lunch

Served at the Law School

13h15 | Guest tour around the Law School

For those who wish to join

13h30 | Panel 4

Remedies/Sanctions

Scope of remedies, including if they apply also to modifications; damages; ineffectiveness, including alternative penalties to ineffectiveness; termination of contracts

- Roberto Caranta
- Highlights from the Country Reports
- Discussion | all

15h00 | Panel 5

Enforcement of Contracts

Select issues with relevance for procurement law) (role of contracting authorities in contract enforcement and management; monitoring and enforcement by third parties

- Marko Turudić
- Highlights from the Country Reports
- Discussion | all

15h45 | Closing remarks

On structure of the book and main issues to be addressed, schedule and methodology for next steps

- Book editors

Organization

Support

lisbonpubliclaw.pt